

June 21, 2005, 6:13PM

WEEKEND THINGS TO DO

Copyright 2005 Houston Chronicle

Saturday

Country music: Texas singer/songwriter Todd Snider, now living in Nashville, will make a rare appearance with his original backup band, the Nervous Wrecks featuring Will Kimbrough, at 8 p.m. in the Sounds of Texas Music Series.

After spending seven years traveling solo, Todd is bringing back his original band for a special Lone Star appearance at the Crighton Theatre in downtown Conroe. Juno award-winning Canadian singer/songwriter Fred Eaglesmith opens the show.

Tickets are $46. Call 936-441-7469 for tickets. Proceeds from the Sounds of Texas Music Series benefit Friends of Conroe, a nonprofit organization founded to enhance the quality of life in Conroe through civic and cultural improvements.